Re: United States v. Manuel Pimenteó, 13-CR-58 (AKH)

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

As you know, we represent Manuel Pimenteó in connection with his pending violation of supervised release. We respectfully submit this letter, with the consent of the Government, to request that the violation of supervised release hearing currently scheduled for November 13, 2023, be adjourned so that Mr. Pimenteó can fully brief his pending motion to vacate, set aside, or correct his sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255 (the “2255 Motion”). ECF 580.

On June 24, 2016, Mr. Pimenteó moved, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255 and the Southern District’s Standing Order of June 8, 2016, to vacate his conviction under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). ECF 580. The initial § 2255 filing was only a placeholder form filed by the Federal Defenders, and, with the consent of both parties, on October 6, 2016, the Court entered a stay, deferring consideration of the 2255 Motion pending final resolution of United States v. Hill (2d Cir. No. 14-3872), United States v. Barrett (2d Cir. No. 14-2641), and Sessions v. Dimaya (S. Ct. No. 15-1498). ECF 601. Although those cases were decided in 2018 (Hill, Dimaya) and 2019 (Barrett), and held that conspiracy to commit a Hobbs Act robbery could not serve as a predicate for a § 924(c) conviction, no counsel entered a notice of appearance to move to lift the stay of Mr. Pimenteó’s 2255 Motion and brief the issues fully. However, several of Mr. Pimenteó’s co-defendants did, and this Court vacated those co-defendants’ sentences. ECF 675; ECF 692; ECF 704; ECF 723.

The parties have agreed that Mr. Pimenteó should have the opportunity to brief the 2255 Motion before the Court conducts the violation hearing. The parties have conferred and respectfully request the following briefing schedule to set forth their positions on the 2255 Motion:

- Defense submission: December 1, 2023
- Government response: December 15, 2023
- Defense reply (if necessary): December 22, 2023

Given the foregoing, the parties respectfully request that the Court adjourn Mr. Pimenteo's revocation hearing, currently scheduled for November 13, 2023, to either January 22 or 23, 2024.

We thank the Court for its consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Justine Harris
